Please Note Time Change.

Date: January 24, 2008, 10:00 a.m.

Destination: Old Town Bluffton.

Directions to the departure point: Meet and eat at The Sippin Cow, on the south side of May River Road (SC 46) across from Old Town Piggly Wiggly. Sippin Cow is at the corner of Heyward Street, about 4/10 of mile west of the corner where SC 46 turns west. Parking at the front of the restaurant is limited, so we will park in the small dirt lot on the west side of Heyward Street just beyond the restaurant.

A description of the ride: We'll ride on streets in Historic Bluffton, along All Joy Road, Myrtle Island, Brighton Beach and Pine Island. We'll ride about 11 miles. There are no bike paths, but for the most part the streets are lightly traveled. There are no rest rooms along the route, so unless you want to make friends with a tree, use the restrooms at the Sippin Cow before we start our ride.

Lunch arrangements: At the Sippin Cow about 11:30 - 11:45. They do not take reservations, so it's 1st come, 1st served. They did not suggest this to us, but in the past said that they could give better lunch service if we placed our orders before we started our ride, so if you wish give yourself a few extra minutes for this.

Alternate Rain Plans: Same place and time.
