Date: Thursday, February 21, 2008, 10:00 a.m.

Destination: Shelter Cove.

Directions to the departure point: We'll meet in the parking lot of the Seagrass Restaurant where we will be having lunch. The Seagrass is in Plantation Center, just beyond and on the same side of Rte. 278 as Palmetto Dunes Plantation. Park beyond and to the south side of the restaurant as parking in front is limited and cramped.

A description of the ride: We will bike a short way north on the 278 pathway and cross to the west side over the wooden pathway to Shelter Cove. This is a dangerous path and we'll walk our bikes. First stop is Shelter Cove Memorial Park which many of you may not have visited. From the park, we'll pedal through the Disney Resort, then through the whole Marina area of Shelter Cove before returning by path to the south side of 278. We will visit Chaplin Park and the surrounding beachfront communities before proceeding to the cabana area of Surf Watch where we can do just that. We'll return to the Seagrass Restaurant from there. This ride is rated four diamond for the availability of rest stops so that water bottles may be used liberally and safely. Distance is about eleven miles. Pace will be on the brisk side since there are many places where slower riders can make slight cuts in distance and rejoin the group.

Lunch arrangements: We'll dine at the Seagrass at about 11:45. Food is good, prices are reasonable and separate checks are not a problem.

Alternate luncheon plans: In case of bad weather we eat at the Seagrass at 11:45.
